

An Spreach Ghaelach (The Gaelic Spark) is the official magazine of Cumann na Gaeilge (The Gaelic Society). Cumann na Gaeilge was founded in 1878 for the purpose of fostering a knowledge and love of the Irish Language in particular and Irish Culture and History in general. These aims are promoted at the weekly meetings of the Society through classes in the Irish language, instruction in Irish dancing, and singing in Irish. Ceilis, lectures, drama presentations and other cultural and social affairs are also sponsored by the Society.

Meetings take place on Friday nights from September to June in:

St. Paul's School Hall
124 West 60th Street
(near Lincoln Center)
Manhattan

The program is as follows:

7:30 - 9:00	Language classes
9:15 - 9:45	Singing
9:45 - 10:15	Tea
10:15 - 11:30	Dancing classes

In July and August a language course is offered on Wednesday nights.
